

*In Jesus name I pray that I am able to embrace my soul as God had always intended for me to do, To be able to see my soul's worth within the temple of my body as perfect in every way inspiring me to care for the temple of my soul with the greatest dedication and respect for what God has given me. For these things I pray.
Amen*